

Noelle Brimble
T: (512) 574-8466 E: brimble@usc.edu

Objective

To obtain experience from a multi-platform media design group, which combines story-telling with different types of current and emerging technology.

Education

University of Southern California (August 2015-May 2019) Los Angeles, CA

- Bachelor of Arts in Media Arts and Practice, School of Cinematic Arts
- Major GPA: 3.75 Over-all GPA: 3.3
- Member of Alpha Lambda Delta National Honor Society (Fall 2015) for academic success
- Member of National Society of Leadership and Success (Fall 2016)

Work Experience

Film Intern at C3 Presents, Austin, Texas

Summer 2016

C3 Presents is the producer of Lollapalooza and Austin City Limits Music Festivals

- Edited video footage for Lollapalooza 2016
- Created a footage reel of previous concerts for RedBull TV
- Created trivia questions and games for jumbo screens at Lollapalooza
- Categorized and filed production binders and schedules

Intern to Cindy Chupack, Writer for Sex and the City and Divorced

May 2015

- Read and wrote coverage on new scripts from represented writers
- Researched potential set locations and arranged pre-production logistics for upcoming shoot
- Planned travel arrangements while working on location

Producer and Crew Member for Trojan Vision TV

Fall 2015

Trojan Vision is the local USC TV station, which is 100% student run

- Produced an episode of The Art Craze and booked choreographer and dancer Saleema E. Knight.
- Television Director for an interview with RJ Mitte of Breaking Bad
- Worked camera, mixed sound, and created graphics for CU @ USC

Skills

- Proficient in HTML, JavaScript, Processing (Java) and CSS coding languages
- Expert in Adobe Photoshop, Premier, and Illustrator
- Microsoft Office Suite
- Public speaking

Activities

- Community Service Director, and member of Alpha Phi Sorority, Beta Pi Chapter
- Contributed to graduate student Karl Baumann's thesis project at Leimert Park, which was entered in The LA 2050 Competition.